

Mr. Biscuit's tale

Mr. Biscuits had many large factories and was full of safes, so he rose proudly to the sky, while in the darkness little children were puncturing needles, and a mug of milk was on the road. He looked, looked at Mr. Biscuit's milk, and a voice said:

- Take this milk and go back to Earth. "Mr. Biscuit didn't understand who dared to do it with him, but suddenly a mug of milk was sitting at his desk. Mr. Biscuit has become a little different. He held the milk and waited, waiting again for the sound he heard suddenly again:

"You're going to meet a man, I sent you to help a diabetic child, carry his cross for a long time, he'll tell you,

- Make milkshakes for diabetic children. God does not want sugars in sour milk biscuits. Help him and start making milkshakes, your job will be no more, but your wealth will grow and lots of kids and moms will love you, you can feel the happiness of loving you.

End.
